Small Group Questions

1. How should we biblically and responsibly respond to dreams we believe God is using to instruct us and glorify Him?
2. What difficult circumstance have you been in for a long time, and it feels like God is not in it with you? In other words, what is your "where is God" circumstance? Are you trusting Him to work it out in His own timetable? Are you willing to let God grow your Faith through it?
3. What does it mean for you to be a part of a congregation impacting the lives of families and their children in Liberia: educational opportunities, medical care, and bringing the message of Jesus?
4. Joel said it's easy for his kids to love him when they are having a good time. Similarly it's easy for us to love God when we feel blessed, does your love for God wane when tragedy, and hardships happen in your life?
5. Joel stated "God is always working behind the scenes even when we can't see it". How do you handle this statement? What has your response been in the past with regard to not seeing God working in a situation? What would you say today?
