

Sermon Notes

Pastor Joel Greenwood • December 15, 2019

Home for the Holidays (Week 3)

Too Busy for Joy

What I say with my _____ and _____ is often more important than what I say with my _____.

So what?

Scripture used: Luke 14

Small Group Questions

1. What are you doing, that creates busyness in your life, and makes it difficult to invest in other people's lives in a tangible way? What can you change to create margin in your schedule/life?
2. Pastor Joel spent time talking about non-verbal communication. How do you do with this type of "non-speaking" communication? How have you been told you do? Is it something you plan to work on, and if so, how? What is your face really saying?
3. How often do you practice smiling at people you encounter? How often are you the recipient of a smile from a stranger? How does that make you feel? What impact does it have on your day and your attitude?
4. Pastor Joel shared the top 5 things people list when they are dying that they regret having not done. Although we may not be dying, in retrospect, what do you regret even now? How can you change those things beginning today?