

Small Group Questions

1. Moms have always been special, but during this COVID-19 situation, have you seen their role evolve more? In what ways has this brought out even more servant-like qualities?
2. What role did your mother play in the development of your faith? Were you able to influence or impact her's in later years?
3. We understand that sacrifice is something usually associated with mothers, but what specifically do you remember your mom doing for you or what have you seen a mom do now for her children?
4. Are Small Groups more, less, or equally important during a time like we are facing?
5. What motivated you to join a small group?
6. How can we encourage everyone at FMC to get into a small group if they aren't currently in one?
