

Small Group Questions

1. How can we use discipline and see it as a positive in our relationships - particularly with our Heavenly Father?
2. Do we enjoy working hard for the Lord and not worrying more about how man judges us?
3. When you think about “Fathers” do you start with a Biblical perspective or do you start with your own personal experience?
4. Is it difficult for you to think of God in terms of “Father” because of the model your father was?
5. Dads, what kinds of things are you protecting your children from? How do you keep up with it all? Are there things that are difficult to protect your children from?
6. How do you balance your time between working to provide for your family and spending time with them to build relationships?