

Small Group Questions

1. In Sunday's service, we sang the Star Spangled Banner, What did it feel like that day knowing this past week there has been a movement to eliminate and replace it as our national anthem? How do we provide grace for those we may disagree with?
2. How can I/We be anchors for others in our life and encourage them to use prayer, scripture, and a relationship with Jesus as their primary anchors in life?
3. Jesus has always been our anchor in the storms of life. Have the past few months given you greater need to hold tight to that anchor? Why?
4. How can we help kids/our children to begin relying more on Jesus as an anchor - even more than us - so that they deepen their relationship with their creator and evolve their own faith?
5. What are some other "anchors" the world suggests we hang on to? Can those anchors be broken?
